Dear Murrell:

I will be in Nashville for the Granny White Pike meeting beginning Sunday evening, November 7, and continuing through the following full Sunday, November 14. I will probably be staying in a local motel at which you and the photographer can also stay. We will have plenty of time to take whatever pictures need to be taken, even to coming to Cookeville for some shots if you feel it necessary. This sounds like the best time for us to be together, and I will plan on it if your schedule so allows.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
